P.I. was driving on Wickham Ave coming from my girlfriend House, 9 Wickham Ave, and was driving home to my house. I made a right hand turn on Guilden St and proceeded on Guilden St across North St onto Railroad Ave. At the intersection of North and Railroad the officer began to follow me. The officer followed me for three blocks and pulled me over in front of Tony Bobba's. I did not like the process of being pulled over and asked for my license and registration and when I asked why I was being pulled over the officer would not tell me. When the officer approached my car [at the second time] the officer gave me my ticket and told me what it was

for. I got a ticket for running the red light at Cavilland and North St.
I do not feel I ran the red light and I do feel that the officers followed me and pulled me over because I am black. R.G.

R.G.
I feel this way because ~~it seems~~ I know every time I am in the area of Wickham and Linden Ave I am followed by the police.
I have been pulled over by Middleboro police twice. The first time was in Wickham Ave ^(at 211) R.G. and the second was the vehicle stop that generated this report. When I was pulled over the first time the officer followed me from Park Circle all the way to Johnny's D's, which is where I was pulled over.
I feel that the officer who pulled me over the first time did not need to follow me and run red lights in the process. R.G.

Everytime an officer follows me in the area of Wickham Ave and Linden Ave
I feel it is because I am black. R.G.
